Cantamar Insider - An Introduction

636863676

Cantamar is run so poorly that a long-term marina tenant is suffering despite doing nothing wrong. I highly recommend avoiding Cantamar due to the many problems created because it is not at all well managed. Cantamar is unsafe – an accident waiting to happen (again). How they are treating me goes far to explain how and why Cantamar is not suitable for providing any services whatsoever, because

Cantamar is run to make the bookings, not to earn or keep customers:

I came to Cantamar marina with my ship three years ago and was quoted a rate which I have paid faithfully since, often several months at a time in advance. Given that the rate seemed low to me, I believed it necessary to avail myself to the facilities to provide what I could, where I could. I have installed water on the docks, helped manage the marina, saved several of Cantamar's dive boats from imminent doom thanks to hurricanes and lazy staff, and otherwise assisted with making sure things don't fall apart here. The arrangement worked well until a German national, in an apparent effort to protect his fraudulent claim to federal property next door which I was interested in leasing, made false statements to the owner which disparaged me, and which the owner believed without question.

At around the same time, I discovered significant damage to my ship and contacted a local electrician and boat surveyor to inspect the damage and confirm the source. Cantamar's electricians failed to reconnect physical ground to the leg of electrical circuit my ship is connected to, and all stray current went through my boat, which was significant considering other faults with neutral and hot circuits in the marina, which is not wired in a legal or safe manner. My galvanic isolator was burned up and my engine, sea cocks, rudder shaft, propeller shaft, propeller, and armature of my ferro-cement ship all suffered damage which has rendered my ship inoperable.

I asked Cantamar for access to otherwise unused facilities in order that I might enact repairs to my ship. I was first granted permission to use a shop which I had to improve and buy materials for in order to use, including cleaning, organizing, constructing walls, properly rewiring electrical outlets and lighting, and installing security all of which created a useful shop from what had previously been a place where only trash had accumulated. When it came time to give me use of a condominium, required as I cannot do the repairs to my ship while I am living on it, things changed, and I was met with significant delays in responding to my inquiries. I spent several weeks and hundreds of dollars to improve a shop I cannot use, not only because I cannot work on my ship, but because massive obstructions in the shop which were not removed as promised by the owner. Cantamar benefits from my work which was supposed to allow me to repair the damage done by Cantamar. And I am paying to stay where I do not want to stay because I cannot leave. I have been

Where do you get the idea that these are not first-hand experiences?

I think I should contact the media to see if they can investigate if Tripadvisor is participating in corruption here in Mexico, because you took down legitimate reviews and photographs to protect a business which is run criminally and which is polluting the ocean and putting people in jeopardy.
